

To whom it may concern,

It is our pleasure to write an endorsement letter for Carrie. When we found ourselves in need of a realtor to both buy and sell properties, we put our trust in Carrie without really knowing her. She did not disappoint us. She was with us every step of the way, keeping us always informed and was always available to us when we called. She is very knowledgeable at her job and took care of every detail, both large and small, to make our transactions as easy as possible. We are thankful Carrie was there when we needed her.
