

February 15, 2007

To Whom It May Concern:

My husband, Eric, and I purchased our home through Carrie Giomi in December 2004. Our experience working with Carrie was very enjoyable. While this was our first home purchase, she was very helpful and encouraging throughout the entire process. She was always friendly and professional as she helped us decipher through all of the legalities of purchasing our home. We would definitely recommend her to anyone with real estate needs.

Eric & Lacey Forrey
616 S Cedar
Townsend, MT