To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this letter in reference to Carrie Giomi.

In October of last year, I contacted Carrie. I had recently been displaced from the house that I was renting, due to the sale of the property, and I needed to pursue the option of buying my own home instead of renting.

I stressed to her that time was of the essence, and I gave her the specifics of what I was looking for in a home, (location, size, and price). She immediately began to help me find a home.

Within days, she had found a couple of homes that I could look at. Due to the fact that I work nights, there were very specific times that I was available to view homes. Carrie was more than happy to work around my schedule.

After viewing the two listings, my wife and I fell in love with the home that we now own.

Carrie went out of her way to help me with all steps in the process of buying this home. Since I was a first-time homebuyer, I was unaware of exactly how much there is to be done, and how stressful the whole process can be. My wife and I had many questions and Carrie was very patient and knowledgeable in answering them. She was by our side from the first day I met with her thru my closing date of October 30, 2006. She even accompanied me to the closing meeting. She worked very hard to make my desire to have my own home come true.

In closing, Carrie Giomi was a complete professional. She went above and beyond the scope of her responsibilities to us. She acted quickly (less than 30 days from start to finish). She made us feel like we were important. I would not hesitate to recommend her to anyone who is in the market to buy or sell. Her energetic personality, and devotion to our needs, made it a pleasure to work with her. She gets an A+ from me.

Sincerely,

Tim Tomes
